

The Presidency

1. Did the founders plan for the presidency to be the most important political institution?
2. Is a divided government and gridlock beneficial?
3. How was the Electoral College an example of compromise?
4. What is the most powerful role of the president? why?
5. Why is the Office of Management and Budget powerful?
6. How has the cabinet evolved in US history?
7. How important is the president's character in determining how he governs?
8. How is the president involved with judges, commissions, and independent agencies?
9. Define and list examples of (Google)
  1. Veto-
  2. Executive Privilege-
  3. Impoundment of funds-
  4. signing statements-
10. How is impeachment an example of checks and balances?